FINANCIAL SERVICES

Financial services are crucial when it comes to managing an apartment building. There are plenty of issues to keep in mind – and we make a point of never letting any item “slip through the cracks.” With Schneider Property Management’s comprehensive in-house accounting and bookkeeping services, we will:

1. Collect all monthly rent and deposit into the owner’s operating account. Follow up on delinquent rent with owner’s attorney and/or Schneider Property Management’s recommended attorney.
2. For new tenants: Collect all up-front costs in clear funds and deposit into owner’s escrow and/or operating accounts.
3. Maintain a separate non-interest-bearing security deposit account as applicable and as required by law.

4. After a thorough review, pay maintenance bills, mortgage, management fee, insurance, taxes and utility bills from owner’s operating account as applicable.
5. Submit computerized monthly and annual operating statements to the owner along with copies of all bills.

MAINTENANCE

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. This is certainly true of keeping a building in good repair. That’s why all of our maintenance personnel (and our qualified sub-contractors) are available to the owner and the tenant at all times. Services include:

1. A 24-hour-on-call maintenance/emergency service. An officer of the company and a maintenance technician are always on-call.
2. Arrange for cleaning, painting, repairs and lock service upon vacancy.
3. Order supplies, fuel, basic services, etc.
4. Arrange exterminating contracts.
5. Savings on the purchase of most items through discounts allowed our company or through competitive and bulk purchasing.
6. Coordinate landscaping service (if applicable).
7. Coordinate bi-weekly dumpster/trash removal service (if applicable).
8. Coordinate snow removal /plowing /sanding /salting service (if applicable).

“We hired them when we purchased the property 2 years ago, they helped us set up bank accounts, and have collected all the rents, paid the bills, and found new tenants when leases ran out. They have been easy to work with and prompt with answering questions and emailing monthly reports. We will definitely use them to manage the next rental property we buy.”

- S. Jameson

9. Negotiate elevator service contracts (if applicable).

LEGAL

Business dealings, like a building, need to have a solid foundation. That is why we have available at all times a real estate attorney specializing in landlord/tenant property law. (This attorney is available to the owner at the owner's cost.) The following are legal services offered:

1. Full credit reporting, eviction reporting, tenant tracking, landlord reference and employment verification on all prospective tenants.
2. Preparation of all rental forms to include the following:
 - a. Unit check-in sheet
 - b. Rent and Security deposit receipt
 - c. Schneider Property Management addendum
 - d. Co-signer forms
 - e. Execute renewal/termination forms 60 days prior to lease expiration
3. Handling federal, state and city agencies where required and keep abreast of changing laws and ordinances.
4. Attending court hearings.
5. Initiating and following through with evictions.

TENANT MANAGEMENT

The importance of finding good tenants – and then maintaining the best possible relationships – cannot be overstated. Following are the essential services we provide:

1. Advertise unit availability at market rent on the internet and our web site.
2. List available units with local real estate agents including our own in-house rental staff.
3. Screen tenants for qualifications.
4. Interview prospective tenants
6. Mediate and resolve all tenant problems.
7. Assist tenants moving in.
8. Duplicate all necessary keys for tenants.
